MUSIC LEARNING MODULE 1: Music of Cordillera

I TARGET GRADE LEVEL: Grade 7

II MODULE 1: Music of Cordillera

III TIME ALLOTMENT: 2 Hours

IV OVERVIEW OF THE MODULE

The lesson is an overview on the music of the Cordillera, or the Highlands of Luzon, where several ethnolinguistic groups in the mountains of the Cordillera live. Through the lesson, one will discover how the Cordillerans express their feelings towards each other and the environment, their history, and their supernatural beliefs through the medium of the voice and/or musical instruments. A group performance inspired by examples of Cordillera music will culminate the educational experience.

V PERFORMANCE STANDARD

- Analyzes musical elements and processes of Philippine music.
- Correlates Philippine music to Philippine culture.
- Performs examples of Philippine music, alone and with others, in appropriate tone, pitch, rhythm, expression, and style.

VI COMPETENCIES/OBJECTIVES

- Analyzes an example of Philippine music from the Highlands and Lowlands of Luzon, and describes how the musical elements are used.
- Explains the distinguishing characteristics of representative Philippine music from the Highlands and Lowlands of Luzon, in relation to history and culture of the area.
- Analyzes the relationship of functions of Philippine music from the Highlands and Lowlands of Luzon, to the lives of the people.
- Sings accurately representative songs from the Highlands and Lowlands of Luzon, alone and / or with others.
- Performs on available instruments music from the Highlands and Lowlands of Luzon, alone and / or with others.
- Improvises simple rhythmic / harmonic accompaniments to selected Philippine music from the Highlands and Lowlands of Luzon.
- Explores ways of producing sounds on a variety of sources that would simulate the instruments being studied.
- Evaluates music and music performances by applying knowledge of musical elements and style.
VII CONTENT/TOPIC

Guide Questions for Music Listening:

Listen to the following instrumental music from the Cordillera region. Answer the following questions as you listen to them. You may also do some research:

a. What instrument was used in this particular music? What is the function of the music in the society?

b. Describe the instruments used. What is the instrument made of? How was it played? What instrumental substitutes can be used using environmental materials present in the classroom?

c. How were the varied musical elements (timbre, dynamics, rhythm, pitch, form) employed to bring about the message of the music?

ASSESSMENT

Rubrics for Group Performance

Basic – Unfocused tone, erratic rhythm, unstable pitch, inconsistent phrasing and dynamics. Needs work on nuances with reference to style and context.

Developing: Focused tone but inconsistent in the extreme ranges, some repeated errors in rhythm, pitch and phrasing, discernible dynamic levels, some nuances as indicated in the music score or as suggested by the teacher with reference to style and context.
Approaching Proficiency: Focused and clear tone in the normal ranges, isolated errors in rhythm, pitch and phrasing, more obvious dynamic levels, with more nuances as indicated in the score or as suggested by the teacher with reference to style and content.

Proficient: Focused and clear tone throughout the piece, accurate rhythm and secure pitch, consistent and sensitive phrasing, and well-defined dynamic levels, with creative nuances as indicated in the music score or as suggested by the teacher with reference to style and content.

Rubrics for Designing an Instrument Substitute

Basic: Inappropriate; Messy and incomplete materials; Sound quality lacks similarity with that of the original instrument.

Developing: Most materials appropriate; Decorated but messy Neat but fragile; Sound quality somewhat similar but not exactly similar to that of the original instrument.

Approaching Proficiency: Appropriate materials; Decorated, neat; Sound quality almost similar to that of the original instrument

Proficient: Appropriate and creatively modified materials; Decorated within the context of the instrument; Neat and Durable; Sound quality most similar to that of the original instrument.

XI SYNTHESIS

The music of the Highlands of Luzon (Cordillera) helps us discover the way of life of the Cordillera people through themes about nature, family life, work in the field as well as the spiritual matters. In addition to songs and chanted poetry, Cordillera music is distinctively made up of two sound characteristics of instruments based on their respective materials - the first, made of bamboo ((flutes, percussion instruments), and the second, made of metal (gongs). These traditions are on their way to extinction due to the modernisation of the way of life among the youth of the Cordillera region. Less and less of the young generation are taught/learning the traditional music of their forefathers. Other threats to their music and most especially, their way of life are the conflict between state policies and their ancestral rights on land ownership, megatourism, militarization, and the shift from manual farming to machine-processed farming. Despite all these, several non-governmental organizations and international organizations like UNESCO ensure the protection not only of the rich culture and tradition of the Cordillera region but also of their people.

XI SYNTHESES

The music for liturgy and devotional music of the Lowlands of Luzon reflects the impact of Spanish colonization which lasted for almost three centuries, and how the introduction of Christianity affected the religious practices of the ethnolinguistic groups. Unfortunately, these are on the verge of extinction due to modernization and diversity of religion. However, efforts from the youth and education sector are joining forces in reviving long lost traditions, if not through the traditional means, through the surviving remnants of the Hispanic-influenced music which are undergoing a transformation into present day versions.
MUSIC LEARNING MODULE 3: Music of the Lowlands of Luzon 2: Secular Music with Spanish Influence

I TARGET GRADE LEVEL: Grade 7

II MODULE 3: Music of the Lowlands of Luzon 2

III TIME ALLOTMENT: 2 Hours

IV OVERVIEW OF THE MODULE

The lesson is an overview on the Spanish-influenced secular music of the Lowlands of Luzon. Through the lesson, one will discover how Spanish-influenced dance music and art songs express their feelings towards each other and the environment, their history, and their religious beliefs through voice and musical instruments. A group musical theatre performance of the vocal forms with an accompaniment on found objects and instruments of the rondalla will culminate the educational experience.

Guide Questions for Music Listening:

Listen to some examples of Hispanic-influenced secular vocal music. In order to have a guided listening activity, read the articles from Mirano and/or Canave-Dioquino.

a. What is the function of the music? What do you think is the message of the music? In what specific occasions is it used?

b. How were the varied musical elements (timbre, dynamics, rhythm, pitch, form) used in bringing about the message of the music?

Group Activity

One vocal form will be assigned to your group. Prepare for a short skit (about 5-7 minutes long) set in the Spanish era, incorporating the music assigned to you. You may have a musical accompaniment on any instrument of the rondalla and/or improvised musical instruments.

X ASSESSMENT

Rubrics for Group Performance

Basic – Unfocused tone, erratic rhythm, unstable pitch, inconsistent phrasing, dynamics and shows insensitivity to style and context

Developing: Focused tone but inconsistent in extreme range, some repeated errors in rhythm and pitch, consistent phrasing, discernible dynamics, some nuances in style as suggested by the score/teacher.

Approaching Proficiency: Focused and clear tone in normal range, accurate rhythm and secure pitch with isolated errors, accurate and consistent phrasing, accurate dynamics, with some nuances in style as suggested by the score/teacher.

XI SYNTHESES

The secular music of the Lowlands of Luzon reflects the impact of the Spanish colonisation which lasted for almost three centuries. The music bears influences of Spanish culture and music and serves as reflections of that era, as seen in the messages of the songs. These songs, mostly about love of a man for a woman, have a deeper meaning for the Filipinos at that time. The man’s longing for the love of a woman is transformed into the country’s love and longing for a free Philippines, as embodied in the woman. As time passes by, these traditions, most of which take place in the less urban areas or on the stages for cultural purposes, get less and less attention. But, we are not wanting in cultural groups who advocate continuance of these traditions.
MUSIC LEARNING MODULE 4: Music of the Lowlands of Luzon 3: Philippine Music during the American and Japanese Periods

I TARGET GRADE LEVEL: Grade 7

II MODULE 4: Music of the Lowlands of Luzon 3

III TIME ALLOTMENT: 2 Hours

IV OVERVIEW OF THE MODULE

The lesson is an overview on the proliferation of musical genres, forms, and ensembles of the Lowlands of Luzon during the American and Japanese periods. Through the lesson, one will discover what forms and genres of music survived during the American and Japanese periods in the Philippines and how these expressed the feelings of the people towards each other and the environment, their history, and their religious beliefs. A group performance of zarzuela airs will culminate the educational experience.

This is a picture of the Philippine Constabulary Band under the baton of Col. Walter H. Loving at the St. Louis Exposition in 1904.

Since not everybody could afford to buy an instrument of their own, some people sought to make an improvised symphonic band.

One good trait of the Filipinos is resourcefulness. Do you think Filipinos today are still resourceful? Why? Write about it.

Guide Questions for Music Listening:

Ang Maya by Jose A. Estella and Bituing Marikit by Nicanor Abelardo are both art songs from the zarzuelas. Your teacher will assign a song to your group. Use the following questions to guide you in listening.

a. What is the function of the music? What do you think is the message of the music?

b. How were the varied musical elements (timbre, dynamics, rhythm, pitch, form) used in bringing about the message of the music?

Group Activity

One art song from a zarzuela will be assigned to your group. Practice singing the song as a group. You may add actions and/or a musical accompaniment on the guitar/or improvised musical instruments.

ASSESSMENT

Rubrics for Group Performance

Basic – Unfocused tone, erratic rhythm, unstable pitch, inconsistent phrasing, dynamics and shows insensitivity to style and context
Developing: Focused tone but inconsistent in extreme range, some repeated errors in rhythm and pitch, consistent phrasing, discernible dynamics, some nuances in style as suggested by the score/teacher.

Approaching Proficiency: Focused and clear tone in normal range, accurate rhythm and secure pitch with isolated errors, accurate and consistent phrasing, accurate dynamics, with some nuances in style as suggested by the score/teacher.

Proficient: Focused, clear tone all throughout, accurate rhythm and secure pitch, consistent and sensitive phrasing and obvious dynamics, with creative nuances to style in response to music score.

XI  SYNTHESIS

Basically, Philippine music during the American and Japanese periods still manifested heavy Hispanic tradition. During these periods, music was taken more as a form incorporated in theatre, as seen in the proliferation of more zarzuelas, which served as vehicles not only for love stories but also for social commentaries and patriotism. At the same time, it also proved that we Filipinos can also do whatever the Westerners can do, as seen in the performance of the Philippine Constabulary Band in 1904, proving the Americans who saw the Filipino race as half-savages wrong. Lastly, it showed the resourcefulness of Filipinos as seen in the musikong bumbong ensemble.

ASSESSMENT

Rubrics for Group Performance

Basic – Unfocused tone, erratic rhythm, unstable pitch, inconsistent phrasing, dynamics and shows insensitivity to style and context

Developing: Focused tone but inconsistent in extreme range, some repeated errors in rhythm and pitch, consistent phrasing, discernible dynamics, some nuances in style as suggested by the score/teacher.

Approaching Proficiency: Focused and clear tone in normal range, accurate rhythm and secure pitch with isolated errors, accurate and consistent phrasing, accurate dynamics, with some nuances in style as suggested by the score/teacher.

Proficient: Focused, clear tone all throughout, accurate rhythm and secure pitch, consistent and sensitive phrasing and obvious dynamics, with creative nuances in style as a response to the music score.

Rubrics for Designing an Instrument Substitute

Basic: Inappropriate; Messy and incomplete materials; Sound quality lacks similarity with original instrumental timbre

Developing: Most materials appropriate; Decorated but messy; Neat but fragile; Sound quality somewhat similar but not exactly as the original

Approaching Proficiency: Appropriate materials; Decorated, neat; Sound quality more similar to that of the original.

Proficient: Appropriate and creatively modified materials; Decorated within the context of the instrument; Neat and durable; Sound quality most similar to that of the original instrument.

SYNTHESIS

The music of the Mangyans of Mindoro help us discover the way of life of the Mangyan with themes about nature, family life, working in the field as well as the spiritual dimension. While there is a lot of vocal music in the form of songs and chanted poetry, there are also bamboo instruments such as jew’s harps, lutes and flutes. The challenges facing the music of the Mangyan of Mindoro is the threat of industrialization (illegal logging) and marginalization resulting from encroaching neighbouring ethnolinguistic groups (Tagalog). However, non-governmental organizations have been put up to protect and preserve the Mangyan way of life including Mangyan music.
MUSIC LEARNING MODULES 6: Music of Palawan

I TARGET GRADE LEVEL: Grade 7

II MODULES 6: Music of Palawan

III TIME ALLOTMENT: 2 Hours

IV OVERVIEW OF THE MODULE

The music of Palawan is a brief survey of the music from different indigenous groups from Palawan such as the Batak, Tagbanua and Palawan. The analysis of the music is done by relating the music to concepts of soundscape, music suggesting/representing elements of nature, spiritual and human emotional expressions through the language. An application of the kulial (song) culminates the module through musical composition and performance.

V PERFORMANCE STANDARD

- Analyzes musical elements and processes of Philippine music.
- Correlates Philippine music to Philippine culture.
- Performs examples of Philippine music, alone and with others, with appropriate tone, pitch, rhythm, expression, and style.

X ASSESSMENT

Rubrics for Simple Notated Musical Work

- Basic: Incomplete composition, barely legible with some of the required musical elements
- Developing: Basically legible with half of the required musical elements
- Approaching Proficiency: Creative and legible, most musical elements complete
- Proficient: Highly creative, most legible (easy to read), complete musical elements

Rubrics for Performance of Creative Work

- Basic – Unfocused tone, erratic rhythm, unstable pitch, inconsistent phrasing and, dynamics with little or no reference to style and context
- Developing: Focused tone but inconsistent in extreme ranges, some repeated errors in rhythm and pitch, consistent phrasing, discernible dynamics, some nuances in style as suggested by the score/teacher.
- Approaching Proficiency: Focused and clear tone in normal range, accurate rhythm and secure pitch with isolated errors, accurate and consistent phrasing, accurate dynamics, with some nuances in style as suggested by the score/teacher.
- Proficient: Focused, clear tone all throughout, accurate rhythm and secure pitch, consistent and sensitive phrasing and obvious dynamics, with creative nuances in style as a response to the music score.

XI SYNTHESIS

The music of Palawan expresses reverence for the spiritual as well as the natural physical world through the epic chants, nature songs and instruments. The human experience of contrasting emotions is also shown in love songs. Music is used not only as an expressive emotive medium but also as an avenue for creativity in the context of a cultural and world view among Tagbanuas, Palaw'an and the Batak people of Palawan.
MUSIC LEARNING MODULES 7: Music of the Visayas

I TARGET GRADE LEVEL: Grade 7

II MODULES 7: Music of the Visayas

III TIME ALLOTMENT: 2 Hours

IV OVERVIEW OF THE MODULE

The module is a survey of the music from the Visayas (Cebu, Bohol, Negros, Leyte) including vocal music such as the balitao and composo as well as instrumental ensembles such as the rondalla. An analysis of the musical elements of Visayan songs as written by experts on Visayan music is validated through listening and improvisation on the balitao form. The culminating performance is a re-enactment of vocal forms such as the balitao, composo or pastores accompanied by the guitar and/or rondalla instruments.

V PERFORMANCE STANDARD

- Analyzes musical elements and processes of Philippine music.
- Correlates Philippine music to Philippine culture.
- Performs examples of Philippine music, alone and with others, with appropriate tone, pitch, rhythm, expression, and style.

IX ACTIVITIES

INTRODUCTION

Have you been to any of these festivals? Can you imagine how the music makes the festival exciting?

Sinulog Festival (Cebu)

Ati-Atihan Festival (Aklan)
Dinagyang Festival (Iloilo)

All photos from www.wikipedia.org

Can you find the location of these festivals in the map of the Visayas?
GUIDED LISTENING

Now listen to some examples of Visayan vocal and instrumental music from the recordings / videos segment of this module. Ask yourself:

- What is the music trying to express?
- How are the musical elements used to express these ideas or feelings?

Read the segment on Western Visayan folksong by Enrique Cainglet. Listen to examples of the balitao.

Were the characteristics enumerated by Cainglet present in the recordings? Why or why not?

APPLICATION

Your teacher will group you into several students per group. One group will be assigned one balitao to be studied from the collection of Gutierrez in the resources segment of the module.

Study the balitao that is assigned to you and practice the music. Students who have knowledge of guitar or rondalla instruments can also improvise chordal accompaniment or play the melody of the song on the bandurria.
ASSESSMENT

Perform the balitao for the class. Take note of the rubrics for performance.

Rubrics for Performance of Creative Work

- Basic – Unfocused tone, erratic rhythm, unstable pitch, inconsistent phrasing, dynamics and shows minimal sensitivity to style and context.
- Developing: Focused tone but inconsistent in extreme melodic ranges, some repeated errors in rhythm and pitch, consistent phrasing, discernible dynamics, some nuances in style as suggested by the score/teacher.

- Proficient: Focused, clear tone all throughout, accurate rhythm and secure pitch, consistent and sensitive phrasing and obvious dynamics, with creative nuances in style as a response to the music score.

JOURNAL ENTRY

After your performance, write your reflection on the following questions:

- How was my performance as a whole? How can my performance be improved?

SYNTHESIS

Music from the Visayas is generally viewed as influenced by the Spanish colonial music tradition with its use of the guitar and its vocal/choral and instrument. While most folk music from the Visayas was influenced by the introduction of Christianity, fusion and hybridization have marked the character of the para-liturgical music used in different festivals. There are still existing ethno-linguistic groups such as the Bukidnon people from Panay who continue to nurture and practice music dating from the pre-Spanish period.
MUSIC LEARNING MODULES 8: Music of the Visayas - Instrumental

I TARGET GRADE LEVEL: Grade 7

II MODULE 8: Music of the Visayas Instrumental

III TIME ALLOTMENT: 2 Hours

IV OVERVIEW OF THE MODULE

The module is an introduction to selected instrumental music from the Visayas such as the Binanog Music Ensemble of Panay Bukidnon, Tultogan Bamboo of Maasin, Iloilo and Rondalla of Silay-on, Negros. The module includes viewing of and listening to the said instrumental ensembles. Making improvised instruments from bamboo materials and/or playing simple folk songs on rondalla instruments will culminate the learning experience. PERFORMANCE STANDARD

- Analyzes musical elements and processes of Philippine music.
- Correlates Philippine music to Philippine culture.
- Performs examples of Philippine music, alone and with others, with appropriate tone, pitch, rhythm, expression and style.

INTRODUCTION

The elements of nature: air, water, fire, and earth can be represented in sound. Using the different natural elements, how can you represent these in sound using your voice? What other materials can you think of to represent the natural elements?

Listen to the music. What do you think was the material used in the music? In your opinion, what element of nature is represented by the sound of the music? Why do you think so?

View the pictures below and connect the music heard to the pictures that you see.
GUIDED LISTENING

Read the program notes on the Binanog (Muyco), Tultogan (under the heading Iloilo Festivals) and the Rondalla (Santos). Listen to or watch the musical examples on the resources segment of the module. Bearing in mind... the ideas behind the music being played, listen to one musical example and make a musical map of what you heard.

MUSICAL MAP

Choose one musical example and map out what is happening in the music using the musical map below:

APPLICATION

Your teacher will group you into several students per group. One group will be assigned to one ensemble: tultogan, binanog, and rondalla. Study the music that is assigned to you and practice the music.

BINANOG and TULTOGAN: Improvise instruments made from bamboo materials and other resources for the tultogan and binanog musical ensembles. Listen to the music and try to imitate the sound of each instrument.

RONDALLA: Using the Rosas Pandan recording as basis and the lyrics found in Gutierrez page 110, improvise accompaniment on the guitar while singing the song. Suggested key is A minor. Advanced students may play the melody on the bandurria by ear.

SUMMARY

As a group, complete the concept map of the instrumental music of the Visayas using the learnings that you have gained.

ASSESSMENT

Perform the music for the class. Take note of the rubrics for performance and instrument substitute.

Rubrics for Group Performance

Basic—Unfocused tone, erratic rhythm, unstable pitch, inconsistent phrasing, dynamics and shows minimal sensitivity to style and context

Developing: Focused tone but inconsistent in extreme melodic ranges, some repeated errors in rhythm and pitch, consistent phrasing, discernible dynamics, some nuances in style as suggested by the score/teacher.

Approaching Proficiency: Focused and clear tone in normal melodic ranges, accurate rhythm and secure pitch with isolated errors, accurate and consistent phrasing, accurate dynamics, with some nuances in style as suggested by the score/teacher.
Proficient: Focused, clear tone all throughout, accurate rhythm and secure pitch, consistent and sensitive phrasing and obvious dynamics, with creative nuances in style as a response to the music score.

Rubrics for Designing an Instrument Substitute

Basic: Inappropriate, Messy and Incomplete materials, Sound quality lacks similarity with timbre of original instrument.

Developing: Most materials appropriate, Decorated but messy, Neat but Fragile, Sound quality somewhat similar to that of the original

Approaching Proficiency: Appropriate materials, Decorated, Neat, Sound more similar to that of the original instrument

Proficient: Appropriate and creatively modified materials, Decorated within the context of the instrument, Neat and Durable, Sound Quality most similar to that of the original instrument

JOURNAL ENTRY
After your performance, write your reflection on the following questions:

- How was my performance as a whole? How can my performance be improved?

XI SYNTHESIS

Instrumental music from the Visayas shows a rich diversity in the musical culture of the region. The different ensembles, with their respective sounds reflect not only the enthusiastic musical involvement of the people of the Visayas but also their sentiments, way of life, and interactions with their environment and other people.
